FINAL COUNTDOWN

European Public Sector Award 2009 – EPSA 2009

Call for applications will close on 20 March 2009 (24h)!

There are only 10 days left to submit an application for the European Public Sector Award 2009. The EPSA 2009 is being organised by the European Institute of Public Administration (EIPA) with the official support of 15 European countries and the European Commission. Applications can be submitted within the following four themes that address Europe's pressing public concerns:

- ❖ Performance Improvement in Public Service Delivery
- ❖ Citizen Involvement
- ❖ New Forms of Partnership Working
- ❖ Leadership and Management for Change

Participation in the EPSA 2009 is free of charge and offers tangible benefits by:

- Showing appreciation to your employees and rewarding their achievements;
- Bringing the work of your projects to the attention of a European audience;
- Receiving valuable feedback on your work;
- Becoming part of a network of excellence across Europe;
- Gaining visibility through multiple EPSA publications;
- Presenting your projects and attending the high-level EPSA 2009 event taking place on 5 and 6 November 2009 in Maastricht (NL).

Have you implemented any innovative projects devising new approaches to administrative problem solving? THEN:

Make sure that you follow our motto and “Assess Yourself and Learn from the Best” by participating with your administrative achievements in “Showcasing and Rewarding European Public Excellence”.
